Abdominal Normothermic Regional Perfusion Workshop

Sponsorship Opportunities

December 5, 2025

Dallas, TX

Support the future of organ transplantation—partner with ASTS to empower transplant professionals through hands-on abdominal NRP training that transforms DCD donor potential into lifesaving outcomes.

This part didactic, part hands on workshop tailored to abdominal transplant and procurement surgeons, OPO clinical leadership and staff, perfusionists, and clinical and administrative staff will teach attendees how to start and sustain an abdominal NRP program and how to develop strong collaborative NRP protocols and policies.
